

7 Questions you should be asking yourself.

- 1- What lengths do I feel comfortable in?
- 2- How do I choose the right color for my skin tone?
- 3- How do I choose the right style and or color for me?
- 4- What styles suit my personal or professional life?
- 5- Is my look more natural or funky?
- 6- Is it my look practical for my time restrictions, and maintenance schedule?
- 7- Can my hair look full and healthy, even if I don't do anything to it?

7 Questions I will be asking you.

- 1- What would you consider the length of your hair?

- 2- Out of only three color categories, would you consider yourself?
A) Blonde B) Brunette C) Redhead

- 3- What is your Natural Level on the Chart? (1-10)

Level is the lightness or darkness of the hair. It has nothing to do with color. It is based on a score of 1-10, one being the darkest and ten being the lightest.

To help you with this, look at the chart below. Pick the one closest to the level of your hair.

- | | |
|------------------|--------------------|
| 1- Black | 6- Dark Blonde |
| 2- Darkest Brown | 7- Medium Blonde |
| 3- Dark Brown | 8- Light Blonde |
| 4- Medium Brown | 9- Lightest Blonde |
| 5- Light Brown | 10- White Blonde |

- 4- Where are you on the Tone Chart?
 All warm tones simply have gold or red undertones. Ash tones do not.

See below for different hair tones at the same level.

A) NEUTRAL (6N) B) ASH (6A) C) GOLD (6G) D) RED/GOLD (6RG)

Try to Match an actual piece of hair in your fingers tips to the color print out. Face a mirror in a well lit room, like your bathroom.

- 5- What lengths & styles would you consider?
