MYFOXNY.COM - Celebrity hairstylist and wig designer Andrew DiSimone was on hand Tuesday to help pamper youngsters from the American Cancer Society and their families.

Girls from the American Cancer Society had new wigs styled; got facials, manicures, pedicures; enjoyed ice cream sundaes; and met Rapunzel from "Disney On Ice presents Dare to Dream." "Disney On Ice" will donate $2 for every ticket purchased for the local engagements of "Dare To Dream" using the code "HAIR" to the American Cancer Society to help fund wigs for children suffering hair loss as a result of medical procedures or treatments such as chemotherapy.
